

SEPTEMBER 2019

Looking forward this Fall....

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ;

The beginning of fall continues a busy season for OCCIF's ministry. We are pleased to announce two additional clients that OCCIF is supporting: St. Seraphim of Sarov Orthodox Church in Boise, Idaho and St. Anthony the Great Orthodox Church in Bozeman, Montana. We are delighted to work with these churches, and look forward to helping them as they continue to grow to further their work.

The fall is also a time of reflection for us, as we continue to refine how we work with our clients and envision new ways to help in the growth of the Orthodox Church. Towards that end, what can we do to make this newsletter a more effective communication tool for you?

We have been using the newsletter to keep you updated on all things OCCIF, but is there something specifically that we can do to make this newsletter serve you better? Our Media Director Erik Holsinger would love to hear any suggestions you might have. Please feel free to contact him at erikh@occif.org.

As always, thank you for supporting and participating in our ministry with your investments and donations!

John Della Monica
President, OCCIF

We are continuing to expand OCCIF with new programs and investment opportunities. To help us toward that goal we are looking for someone to provide specialized perspectives for our Advisors Council:

Non-Profit Law

We are looking for an individual who can help coordinate and refine the work of our legal counsel by providing a non-profit perspective and best practices.

If you know of any individuals who would be interested in working to expand OCCIF and become a part of our Advisory Council, please click here to reach out to John Della Monica.

Father Edward Henderson, OCCIF supporter.

Father Henderson's group provided funding for one of OCCIF's earliest projects. Hear his perspective on why OCCIF is so needed today.
