

DECEMBER 2019

Seasons Greetings!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ;

Everyone at OCCIF prays you have a blessed Nativity.

We are grateful to have been of service to so many during this last year. As always, we are blessed with meeting new people and helping the growth of the Church throughout America. I'd also like to thank all of our volunteers, counselors, and members of the board for their tireless efforts on behalf of this ministry.

Through the church we can conquer the diversity in social agendas, ranging from our local communities to our national government. Positive change will occur through prayer versus policy. Let us be mindful of the needs of each other as we boldly step into 2020, putting our trust in our Savior for all things. Christ is born...glorify Him!

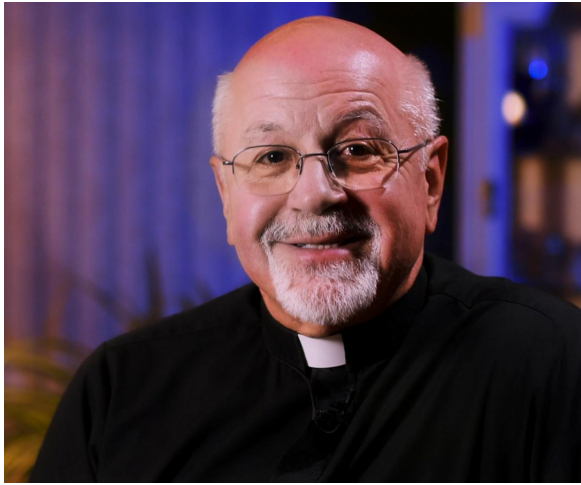

As always, thank you for supporting and participating in our ministry with your investments and donations!

Father David Moser of St. Seraphim of Sarov Orthodox Church in Boise, Idaho

As our last video of the year, we finish our interview with Father David Moser of St. Seraphim of Sarov Orthodox Church in Boise, Idaho. We worked with Father David to finance a major upgrade of the church, and actually get to see work on the church in progress.

We are looking for an individual who can help coordinate and refine the work of our legal counsel by providing a non-profit perspective and best practices.

Securities Law Attorney

We are looking for an individual for consultation to help us by providing a non-profit perspective and best practices in Securities law.

If you know of any individuals who would be interested in working to expand OCCIF and become a part of our Advisory Council, please click here to reach out to John Della Monica.
